new identity. It is a new identity, a new nakedness, a new pose, a new of which form is a identity that once existed, and now know been obstructed. The body is creating its new identity by breaking the obstruction and once revealing the desired form. We are creating an actual new figure through this figure we have been with to it, with the message of absolute nakedness, that expresses nudity, and nakedness. For this reason alone it allows us to explore further.

There is a new form, a new nudity, with the body itself, a new form, a new form that conceal
